>>Equal Opportunities

InterAct works to assist a broad spectrum of people into work/volunteering/training. We welcome applications for all sections of the community, and we request that you complete and return the separate Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form with this application

>>Criminal Convictions

Having a police record does not necessarily mean that you cannot volunteer for InterAct. However the nature of the individuals helped by InterAct is such that you are exempt from the requirements of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. You are required to complete an enhanced DBS check (for volunteers this is free of charge). You are required to disclose as follows:

Do you have a criminal conviction? YES / NO (If yes, please supply details on a separate sheet)

>>Marketing and Publicity

Do you give your consent for InterAct to use photos taken in connection with volunteering activities to be used for marketing, promotional and project recording purposes? Yes / No

>> Data Protection

Your details will be kept in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998/2003. They will be held securely and confidentially. They will be accessed by authorised management.

>>Declaration

I confirm that to the best of my knowledge all the above information is true and correct. I understand that providing deliberately false information may result in my dismissal or other disciplinary action.

It is also my understanding that any offer of volunteering with InterAct is subject to satisfactory references and an enhanced check with the Disclosure & Barring Service.
